

CENTENNIAL HIGH SCHOOL

Senior Dues Information for the Class of 2012

One...two! One...two!

Senior dues for the Class of 2012 are $87.

This fee (also known as the cap & gown fee or graduation fee) is mandatory for seniors who will participate in the graduation ceremony and attend senior class events. This is the only mandatory fee for members of the senior class. All other senior-related expenses such as prom tickets, yearbooks, and Grad Bash, are optional.

What does the fee include?

- Graduation cap and gown (white for girls / royal blue for boys)
- Class of 2012 tassel
- Leather diploma cover with Centennial's insignia
- Centennial's graduation medallion
- Portion of fees to rent the graduation facility
- Admission to senior week festivities
- Six tickets for the graduation ceremony, and a
- Spirit surprise!

What forms of payment are accepted?

- Cash
- Check – make checks out to Centennial High School
- Credit cards – visit gabalfour.com, choose Centennial, click on Grad Fee/Cap & Gown, and then fill out the form.

When will payments be accepted?

Payment will be accepted in room J02 or on the Balfour website starting October 1. Please pay before March 1 to avoid paying a hefty late fee. Seniors will receive their *spirit surprise* upon turning in their payment.

Can the payment be broken up into installments?

You may pay in installments if you choose. The minimum payment accepted is $30. Only cash and checks will be accepted for installment payments.

Where are payments made?

Cash and check payments can be dropped off to Miss Galanos in Room J02 anytime except during class.

Questions?

If you have a special circumstance or any additional questions, please contact Miss Galanos, the graduation coordinator, at galanos@fultonschools.org or see her in Room J02.
