

NAME	SPONSORS	DESCRIPTION	Faculty Advisor Contact Information	Club Meetings
21st Century Leaders	Marie Robinson	21st Century Leaders is a club for student interested in becoming the next generation of leaders. Members are inspired by and collaborate with business and professional leaders to take on leadership positions. The main goal is for members to seek out opportunities and give back to their communities through training and hands-on experiences.	RobinsonMM@fultonschools.org
Abraham Lincoln Appreciation/US History	Eulora Skelton	This is an academic club with the focus on the United States History and Abraham Lincoln.	skeltone@fultonschools.org	Fridays at 3:30pm
Academic Bowl	Karina Bennie	The Academic Bowl team meets twice weekly and conducts mock Academic Bowl competitions. The team travels to various tournaments to compete against other high schools throughout the state. The team is a registered member of the Georgia Academic Team Association. The main goal of team meetings is to practice for local quiz bowl tournaments.	benniek@fultonschools.org	Academic Bowl meets in G-65 Tuesday and Thursday 8:15 AM. Annual dues are $10.
Accolade	Leslie Wolfe	The Accolade staff produces six issues of the student newspaper each year. The staff researches, writes, edits, and designs all of the material for each paper. Staff members develop real-world journalism skills including desktop publishing skills and business management. The staff, comprised of sophomores, juniors, and seniors, is selected through an application process in the spring semester. Staff members are enrolled in a yearlong journalism class; other students may contribute to the paper.	wolfe2@fultonschools.org

Anchor Club		Membership in an Anchor Club allows young women to make a dynamic difference in their world through volunteer service...and have FUN while helping others. Anchors learn valuable skills that prepare them to be good citizens for the rest of their lives. They have opportunities to lead and organize service projects and play active roles in club programs. Anchor members discover the importance of working together---no single member can perform the service that the members accomplish as a team. Often they even work side by side with their sponsoring Pilot Clubs to promote awareness and provide hands on service to people in the community.		Fall Semester - Wednesday mornings @ 7:40 when announced. Spring semester
Anime	Amy Blafer
Art Club	Charlotte Turner	The Art Club is for students passionate about visual art who gather twice a month to help enhance their own enjoyment in art and to promote art at Centennial. In addition to creating their own works of art, the Art Club assists in enhancing the school environment and participates in art related events throughout the year.	turnerc2@fultonschools.org	Wednesday 7:30 a.m. twice a month
Association of Potential Programmers		This club is a place where members will work together to reach the common goal of creating a game. APP will improve members' social skills as well as their programming skills. The group hopes to make games and participate in competitions.
Avalon	Linda Jones	Avalon is Centennial's literary/art magazine. All students can submit writing, artwork, and photography in the submission folders in their English classrooms or to G-59 during the first semester. Avalon is an elective class that meets all year during the school day. Sophomores, juniors, and seniors interested in joining the staff can apply spring semester.	jonesL1@fultonschools.org
B.L.U.E Steppers (Beautiful Loving Unique Sisters)		Students will demonstrate a rhythmic and creative form of art through stepping.

Beta Club	Mr. Jacobi	Beta Club is an honorary service club for students in grades 9-12. Students must have an 88 or better GPA and perform at least ten service hours in BETA sponsored projects per semester.	jacobij@fultonschools.org
Black Student Union	Zyer Beaty
Book Club		This group selects a common book to read then meets to discuss the book.
Stand Up For Cancer Club	Kimberly Novak	The group raises money and awareness for those facing the challenges of cancer.	novakkl@fultonschools.org	Tuesdays Mornings 1x month J11
CFA Leader Academy	Nsikan Ekpo	This organization is by application only. Sponsored by Chick Fil-A, student involved in the academy learn leadership skills as well as strategies to plan and implement a community-wide service project.	ekpon@fultonschools.org
Code A Lot		Code A Lot is a group of students who wish to further their ability in computer science and JAVA. FIRST Robotic Competitions and Coding
Cultural Diversity Club	Linda Jones	Due to the diversity of our student body, it would be beneficial for everyone to learn of the different cultures that comprise us. Students could inform each other of common misconceptions and conflicts along with key traits of their heritage.	JonesL1@fultonschools.org
Drone Team	Ms. Marie Robinson	Scholars will build, code, fly, and race drones. Students will also participate in Drone Competitions and Air Races.	RobinsonMM@fultonschools.org	I-18 once a month till May
Environmental Club	Shanna Van Tassel	The Environmental Club promotes sustainable actions through guest speakers, activities, and projects on campus and in our community. We participate in Rivers Alive, Paint Recycling Event, Christmas Tree Recycling Event, Earth Day Balloon Lab, End of Year Locker Clean Out Recycling, and community festivals. We have been recognized by Keep Georgia Beautiful and the City of Roswell for our efforts. Everyone is welcome to join.	vantassells@chsknights.com

Executive Student Council	Mr. Kroll / Ms. Mazza	Executive Student Council oversees most student council activities. Each year Executive Student Council plans and sets up the homecoming parade and dance, Hey Day, the teacher appreciation luncheon, and additional fundraisers. Executive Student Council officers are elected in the spring; they, in turn, select representatives for the various committees. The president and vice president of each class council also serve on the Executive Student Council.	krollz@fultonschools.org mazzak@fultonschools.org
FCCLA	Calandra Peyton	FCCLA is the ultimate leadership experience. The mission is to promote personal growth and leadership development through Family and Consumer Sciences education. Focusing on the multiple roles of family member, wage earner and community leader, members develop skills for life through: character development, creative and critical thinking, interpersonal communication, practical knowledge, and career preparation. All students are welcome to join.	PeytonC@fultonschools.org	Meetings are the 2nd and 4th Wednesdays of every month at 3:45pm.
Fellowship of Christian Athletes	Ms. Diaz	Free donuts. Free music. Free fun. Come check out FCA and learn what this life is all about.	martinezr@fultonschools.org
Fencing Club	Ms. Wolfe	We are part of the fast-growing Georgia High School Fencing League (GHSFL), a league of a dozen area schools. Even though sword fighting goes way back, the official sport of fencing dates back to the 1700's in France. Winning at fencing is a combination of many things: mind, flexibility, hand-eye coordination, and endurance. Fencing promotes balance, precision, and stamina. Practices are twice a week, and the season runs from September through March with tournaments each month. We have elected officers and the students really have a good time. A one-time investment in a weapon and protective gear is required. Annual dues also required.	wolfe2@fultonschools.org
Flood		Flood is a service oriented club for students in the North Fulton area. Flood provides opportunities for students to saturate their communities with Christ.

French Club	Amanda Skrok Marylou Wiesendanger	The French Club is open to both students of French and to Francophiles. The club meets monthly focusing on varied cultural activities representing aspects of francophone culture. A yearly dues of $10 can be paid at the first meeting. Among those activities are a Mardi Gras celebration, an authentic French breakfast, a feature film presentation, and a French dinner.	skroka@fultonschools.org	One Thursday a month at 3:30-4:30 PM in H-20
French Exchange Program	Marylou Wiesendanger	Biannually, students in the French program travel to Switzerland. The trip lasts for two weeks, and students have the opportunity to live with Swiss students and families, speak French continuously, and attend a Swiss school while immersing themselves in Swiss culture. These students also serve as host students when the Swiss students complete their leg of the exchange in the U.S. Information will be sent home via French classes for the exchange. The exchange is open for students in French 3 or higher.	wiesendanger@fultonschools.org
French Honor Society	Marylou Wiesendanger	The Société Honoraire de Français is an honorary organization whose aim is to stimulate interest in the study of French, to promote high standards of scholarship, and to reward scholastic achievements. Students must be in third year French or above and have an A average in French and an A during the semester of invitation. Students must have a cumulative grade of B in all other subjects.	wiesendanger@fultonschools.org
Freshman Class Council	Mr. Serrette	Students work together to make student life for freshmen fun and enriching. Council activities include: Homecoming activities, including hallway decorations and dance preparation, fundraising and serving as a leader for the freshman class.	serretteu@fultonschools.org
Future Business Leaders of America	Marie Robinson	FBLA plans activities that encourage leadership training, community service, school service, and competition in business type events. Students may join even if they aren't taking a business class.	robinsonmm@fultonschools.org	2nd and 4th Thursday monthly at 7:30 in Room I-18
FWD	Chelsea Burney

German Club	Ashley McCarty	The German Club meets to enjoy cultural aspects of Germany not always available in a large-class setting. We discuss political and cultural events, host Oktoberfest and World Cup parties, and watch and discuss German films. During the years of the German Exchange, the German clubs accompanies the German students to cultural events around Atlanta, and helps to coordinate weekend trips.	mccarty@fultonschools.org
German Exchange Program	Ashley McCarty	Every two years, students in the German program travel to Germany in the spring semester. The trip lasts for two weeks, and students have the opportunity to live with German students and families, speak German continuously, and attend a German school while immersing themselves in German culture. These students also serve as host students when the German students complete their leg of the exchange in the U.S. in September.	mccarty@fultonschools.org
German Honor Society	Ashley McCarty	During their third year in German, students with over a 90% average in German, as well as a cumulative 85% average in all classes are inducted into the German Honor Society. In order to maintain membership until graduation, and subsequently receive a graduation cord, students are required to complete community service hours and maintain a determined GPA.	mccarty@fultonschools.org
GO STEM	Cheryl Carroll	The Centennial GOSTEM club provides an opportunity for girls to explore STEM careers through engaging and fun STEM club challenges. The GOSTEM club is designed just for girls to provide girls with a safe space to express themselves in the absence of boys as well as nurturing the girls, and giving them the skills to empower them to take STEM subjects at a level which will lead them into STEM apprenticeships or University courses.	carrollc2@fultonschools.org

GSA	Ariel Stone	Gay-Straight Alliance (GSA) is a student-run club, typically in a high school or middle school, which provides a safe place for students to meet, support each other, talk about issues related to sexual orientation and gender identity and expression, and work to end homophobia and transphobia.	StoneAE@fultonschools.org	Tuesdays 3:30-4:30, Room G56
Habitat for Humanity		It is an international organization that allows students to impact their community.	JonesL1@fultonschools.org
HOPE	Norma Escalera-Smith	CHS HoPe is a leadership chapter of HoPe Inc. (Hispanic Organization for the Promotion of Education), the largest Hispanic high school student organization in Georgia and the Southeast. Its mission is to increase the graduation rate among Latino/Hispanic high school students through leadership, education and community service to help Latino/Hispanic students reach their full potential.	esmith@fultonschools.org	HoPE meets the last Tuesday every month from 3:45
HOSA: Future Health Professionals	Jama Cochrane Christina Branch	HOSA is a club for students interested in pursuing careers in medicine. We participate in local, regional, and national competitions in healthcare knowledge and skills such as CPR, First Aid, and more. We develop future leaders in health care.	CochraneJ@fultonschools.org BranchC@fultonschools.org
Improv Club	Ms. Howard	This is a club for students involved with Theater.	HowardT@fultonschools.org	Fridays at 3:45pm
Interact Club	Marcelle Male	Interact is a student-led service organization for grades 9 through 12. Club members participate in a variety of local and international service projects each year. In addition to the rewards of serving our community, the students develop leadership skills and have the opportunity of networking with community leaders. Meets on the 1st & 3rd Wednesdays of every month at 3:45 in Room I-23A. We are sponsored by the Rotary Club of North Fulton.	male@fultonschools.org	Every other Wednesday at 3:45 in P-09
Interpreter Club	Robert Lopez		lopezr@fultonschools.org
Jewish Student Union	Patrick Weigand	The JSU meets almost every Thursday morning to discuss issues of culture and faith.	Weigand@fultonschools.org

JROTC	Jonathan Nepute	JROTC is an active part of student life at Centennial. Students interested in joining any JROTC club must be a part of the JROTC organization. There are three clubs within the JROTC program. Raiders Challenge is the ultimate fitness challenge. Be a member of a ten person team that competes against hundreds of students across the state. Construct a rope bridge, carry heavy equipment, pull a military vehicle, and work as a team. Color Guard is a prestigious group of individuals that displays our National Colors at local events to include parades, ceremonies, organizational meetings and sporting events. Exhibition Drill is a modified routine that involves complex marching with or without drill rifles.	neputej@fultonschools.org
Junior Class Council	Jill Dias-Schindler	The Junior Class Council is responsible for fundraising and planning the Junior/Senior Prom. Class fundraisers include the annual Sally Foster sale and the Talent Show. The council is also involved in homecoming week festivities. Officers are elected in the spring. Representatives are chosen through an application process.	schindlerj@fultonschools.org
Junior State of America	Jill Dias-Schindler	JSA researches current events then holds informal debates after school on Thursdays.	schindlerj@fultonschools.org
Key Club	Leslie Wolfe	A national service organization that is supported by the Kiwanis Club. Students pledge to volunteer a minimum of 50 hours per year in an area of their choice.	wolfe2@fultonschools.org
LEOS		Working in connection with the Roswell Lions' Club, this group focuses on community service projects benefitting the Rowell community as well as projects benefitting the world.
Male Mentoring Program	Coach Wozgen Officer Callahan	Our mission is to motivate, empower, and encourage young men to strive for excellence in academics, in the community and socially through mentoring. This program is designed to challenge every male mentee to be positive decision makers and ultimately help facilitate the process that will shape them into successful and responsible young adults.	wozgen@fultonschools.org callahan@fultonschools.org

Math Team	Dr. Shih	The main objective of the Math club is to improve students' problem solving skills. The alternate goal is to let students enjoy learning math and love math by making the learning process easy and fun.	shih@fultonschools.org	Friday 7:30 a.m. in P-12
Mock Trial		Students play the roles of attorneys and witnesses based on the witness statements and evidence provided in the case materials. Professional attorneys or judges serve as the Presiding Judges and Evaluators (jury). Teams are evaluated on their ability to make a logical, cohesive and persuasive presentation, rather than on the legal merits of the case. Teams compete in actual courtrooms across the state beginning with the Regional competitions. The top three teams from each Region advance to the District Competitions to vie for a spot at the State Finals Competition in Lawrenceville, GA.
Model UN	Mr. Hennessey	The main focus of the Model UN Club is to provide students with an opportunity for hands-on learning concerning global challenges and concerns in the twenty-first century. Interested students should speak to their social studies teachers and complete the application process.	HennesseyM@fultonschools.org
Mu Alpha Theta	Ms. Bullard	Mu Alpha Theta is the national mathematics honor society. The club is responsible for promoting mathematical excellence at Centennial through tutoring and other enrichment opportunities. Events in the past have included Hillside Math Day, Pi Day Celebrations, and Trivia Night at Buffalo Wild Wings Café. This club is designed for those who are strong in math and looking to apply their knowledge and strength in helping others and promoting fun and excitement in mathematical ideas.	bullardp@fultonschools.org
National Honor Society	Eulora Skelton	NHS is a service and academic recognition organization. The National Honor Society (NHS) is established to recognize outstanding high school students. More than just an honor roll, it serves to honor those students who have demonstrated excellence in the areas of Scholarship, Leadership, Service, and Character.	skeltone@fultonschools.org	Second Tues., before and after school, E-11

National Technical Honor Society	Gray Sartin	NTHS is a student organization to recognize those who excel in their academic and technical/career courses.	SartinG@fultonschools.org
ONE	Marcelle Male	Students will be a voice for those who do not have one. Members will educate themselves on what is going on around the world and advocacy.	Male@fultonschools.org
Reading Bowl	Christa Heath	The Georgia Helen Ruffin Reading Bowl is open to students in grades four through twelve across the state. The winning teams from the Divisional Bowls meet at the Annual Conference on Children's Literature in March for the State Championship of the Georgia Helen Ruffin Reading Bowl.	heathc@fultonschools.org	The Learning Commons
Recycling	Madison Wisdom	Students will collect recycled items and work closely with the Roswell Recycling Center.	wisdomml@fultonschools.org
Relay for Life	Marcelle Male	Relay for Life is part of a national fund raising effort for the American Cancer Society. The effort is initiated by the Interact Club; however, participation is open to all students.	Male@fultonschools.org
SADD (Students Against Destructive Decisions)	Mr. Dale	SADD is a peer-to-peer education, prevention, and activism organization dedicated to preventing destructive decisions, particularly underage drinking, other drug use, risky and impaired driving, teen violence, and teen suicide. SADD meets monthly to plan events and activities to promote awareness of the organization's mission. All students are welcome to participate. SADD coordinates the events of the Red Ribbon Week.	dalec@fultonschools.org
Secretary of State's Student Ambassadors	Meggin Rosner	Selected student leaders will complete the training and will learn more about Georgia government. They will help with voter registration. Students will have an opportunity to meet and talk with Secretary Kemp	rosner@fultonschools.org
Senior Class Council	Sheila Jimenez	The Senior Class Council sponsors activities for the senior class including, but not limited to, Senior Service Day, Senior Week festivities, and Homecoming Week festivities. The council also plans the graduation ceremony.

Skills USA		SkillsUSA is a national, nonprofit student organization that has developed more than 10 million workers through active partnerships between employers and educators. Skills USA's mission is to empower its members to become world-class workers, leaders and responsible American citizens. Skills USA Georgia is focused on serving high school students involved in CTE Pathways. Meetings in the past have covered job trends, job skills, diversity in the workplace, etc. Skills USA prepares students to be leaders in the working world. Skills USA gives students service opportunities and prepares them to compete in skills related to their career fields. We meet monthly and we compete at the regional, state and national levels.
Sophomore Class Council	Ms. Beard	Students work together to make sophomore student life fun and enriching. Council activities include: football games, homecoming week - decorations, spirit day participation and a spring fundraiser.	bearda1@fultonschools.org
Spanish Club	Shirley Potter and Marjorie Araujo	The Spanish club is open to students enrolled in Spanish classes and Spanish speakers. The club focuses on cultural celebrations and social activities. We meet about once a month for cultural activities, dancing, games, and food. ¡Es muy divertido!	potters@fultonschools.org	Monthly as needed
Spanish Exchange Program	Raquel Martinez Robert Lopez Veronica Gonzalez	Every two year, students in the Spanish Program travel to Spain in the Spring semester. The trip lasts for two weeks, and students have the opportunity to live with Spanish students and families, speak Spanish continuously, and attend a Spanish school while immersing themselves in Spanish culture. These students also serve as host students when the Spanish students complete their leg of the exchange in the U.S. in September. Information will be sent home via Spanish classes for Spanish Exchange Program early in the second semester.	GonzalezV@fultonschools.org martinezr@fultonschools.org

Spanish Honor Society	Raquel Martinez Veronica Gonzalez	The club is a select group of dedicated and passionate upper level Spanish students. We are a service/scholarship club providing assistance to the local Hispanic community as well as to our Centennial community. The students are able to use their Spanish in a variety of authentic settings. The students tutor Spanish 1-2 students, ESOL students, and serve as translators and student helpers at North Fulton Community Charities and other local community events. We are affiliated with the national organization.	GonzalezV@fultonschools.org martinezr@fultonschools.org
Students Serving Veterans	Kimberly Carr Kate McKay	SSR is a student-led, community service club that aims to combat the lack of resources offered to returning veterans by hosting monthly donation drives. donations will benefit the Veteran's Empowerment Organization (VEO) and similar veteran rehabilitation groups.	carrKA@fultonschools.org mckay@fultonschools.org
Table Top Club	John Riggins	An organization for students that have interests in games such as Magic the Gathering, Warhammer 40k, FOW, D&D and other such games. Informal meetings are held in E-52 in the mornings with special events taking place on most Friday mornings. Please stop by and see Mr. Riggins in E-52 if you have any questions.	Riggins@fultonschools.org
Technical Student Association	Mr. Gathing	Technical Student Association (TSA) plans activities that encourage leadership training, community service, school service, and competition in technology type events. Students may join even if they aren't taking an engineering class.	GathingA@fultonschools.org
Thespians Society	Terrie Howard	The Thespians Society is an honor society for students who participate in theatre. Membership is gained by performing in or working backstage during productions at Centennial. Members participate in conferences, workshops, service projects, and social events.	Howardt@fultonschools.org	3:45 in G 53 once a month on Wednesday

Torque Club	Brad Davis	This group is led by students who are interested in physics. The club works to build a good foundation in physics and plans to prepare for the SAT2 subject test in physics, physics competitions such as physics Olympiad and the F = ma exam, and the AP Physics C: Electromagnetism exam.	DavisB1@fultonschools.org
Tri-M Music Honors' Society	Chelsea Burney Tyler Ehrlich	Tri-M is a service organization for current music department students. The purpose of this organization is to inspire music participation, create enthusiasm for scholarship, stimulate a desire to render service, and promote leadership in the music students of secondary schools.	burneyc@fultonschools.org ehrllichTL@fultonschools.org
UNICEF	Zachary Kroll	Students will support UNICEF goals and missions in organizing charity drives to support children all over the world.	krollz@fultonschools.org
Visual Arts Society	John Riggins	Members must have shown a dedication to the Visual Arts by completing (or in process of completing) a track in the Visual Arts up to the 4th level of the class, and/or the completion of an AP Studio Art course. Student will need to show a portfolio of their works to be in the Centennial Arts Society as well as having submitted for art shows, such as the Georgia National Fair, Atlanta Celebrates Photography, Roswell Visual Arts Center Student show, etc. The goal of the Centennial Visual Arts Society is the advocacy for the arts through the pursuit of a portfolio and presentation of works of art in a variety of shows and venues. For instance a student that has taken Photo Design I-IV with a portfolio of their works, and submission of works to an art show, would be accepted into the Centennial Visual Arts Society. Likewise any student that has already taken an AP Studio Art class, received a grade of 3 or better, or is currently enrolled in an AP Studio Art class, and has a portfolio, would be accepted into the Centennial Visual Arts Society.	Riggins@fultonschools.org
Will to Live (part of HOSA)	Jama Cochrane	This club raises awareness about issues related to mental health and suicide prevention.	cochraneJ@fultonschools.org

Yearbook	Ms. Scenna	The student staff is responsible for the creation of the yearbook. Students learn the fundamentals of graphic design, editorial writing, and business skills necessary to successfully produce a 500+ page book. Members must apply and be in at least the 10th grade.	ScennaA@fultonschools.org
----------	------------	--	---------------------------	--